TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 16 1893.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Sun rises to-morrow at 4:52; sun sets 7:08. High water 7:55 a. m. and 5:18 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section clear, this afternoon and to-night, followed by fair till Thursday; winds becoming northwest; cooler Wednesday morning and night.

COUNTY LAND SALES.—The following sales of real estate in the county have recently been made:

A. W. Armstrong, special commissioner, to J. R. Johnston, two parcels of land, 521 acres, near Conventual Camp, for $1,120.

S. C. Ball, et al., to W. P. Boswell, 25 acres near Arlington, for $2,000.

H. R. Wattle, to W. H. Ackers, trustee, for S. W. Jones and T. H. Pickford, one half acre, near the Old Factory.

Randolph Hayner, trustee, for N. P. and Allen Dodge, to the W. S. Railway Co., a strip of land near the bridge over Rough's Run, for $6,613, a strip along the Georgetown branch of the W. S. Railway for $838, and a strip near the lands of the Virginia Brick Company's property.

The W. S. Railway Co. to R. Haynes, two strips of land recently owned by the Virginia Brick Company.

W. E. Clarke to J. H. Lane, one-eighth of an acre near Arlington, for $50.

J. W. Bancroft to G. W. Wiley, one acre on the Columbia turnpike, in Arlington district, for $200.

W. H. Helmuth, et al., to H. F. Wheat and Alex. Suter 14 acres bounded by Princess, Oronoco and West streets, extended.

A FRAUD.—An item in the GAZETTE recently alleging that oleomargarine was sometimes exposed for sale in the market house for butter, has caused the assertion to be made that much of the latter household essential brought to market and palmed off on unsuspecting buyers as fresh country print is in reality firkin butter in another shape. This is confidently asserted by some who profess to know, and who charge that it is an uncommon thing for some of our rural friends to come to town, purchase packed butter, run it through a churn, print it, bring it to market and say they churned it themselves which they did in fact, though fish butter is by no means produced by this method. Another charge made is that butter brought to market in half pound prints in many instances falls short in weight, and it is suggested that the Market Master place some on the scales some fine morning to ascertain the correctness of this last charge.

PERSONAL.—Mr. W. A. Smoot has returned from Nova Scotia where he went to look after his extensive plaster interests. Mr. Smoot is now one of the principal owners of the two largest plaster quarries in Nova Scotia.

The family of Gen. W. H. Payne have returned to Warrenton from Washington.

Miss O. Gaines, of Casanova, Fauquier county, and Miss Virginia Carr, of Loudoun county, are visiting the family of Mr. James W. Carr, on south Washington street.

Only one of the Alexandria ministers will attend the Episcopal Council which meets in Winchester to-morrow—Rev. H. Suter of Christ Church.

A FINE DOG.—Mr. R. W. French, of Alexandria, has a dog, which, owing to its gigantic proportions and the fact that he resembles a lion in color as well as in size, is a veritable curiosity. This dog, which is a St. Bernard, is only eighteen months old and weighs one hundred and eighty-two pounds. While, with his massive head and paws and shaggy coat of a rich yellow, the resemblance between him and a lion is striking—almost startling, he is as docile as a lamb and as frolicsome as a kitten. Mr. French says that the dog has not finished growing and expects that he will get fifty pounds heavier. He also says that he has repeatedly refused an offer of $1,000 for him.—Alexandria Gazette.

A STRANDED FAMILY.—John D. Newton, his wife and five children (the oldest 11 years and the youngest 6 weeks) arrived in this city yesterday evening in a wagon on their way to Chester, Pa., where the husband has relatives. Mr. Newton, who is a paralytic, is from Mecklenburg county, and is totally unfitted for any employment. They were taken into the station house and made as comfortable as possible, the members of the police force performing every kindly act they could for the destitute ones. To-day, after numbers of good people had contributed to their necessities, they were sent on their way.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was rainy. There were eight lodgers and two prisoners at the station house.

Mayor Strauss had but one case before him this morning—that of a colored boy named Horace Williams, whose father charged him with drunken and disorderly conduct and with carrying a pistol. He was sent to the chain gang for thirty days.

The case of a conductor who alleged that he gave a colored passenger too much change which the latter refused to disgorge, was dismissed for the reason that the plaintiff refused to appear.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—Potomac Lodge, I. O. O. F., is making extensive arrangements for a fine entertainment to be given at the close of the season in the Opera House on Monday night, June 5th, for the benefit of the 104th. The entertainment will be under the direction of J. J. Burnham, esq., of the Pension Office, but now a resident of this city.

BURNED TO DEATH.—On Friday the house of Frank Marshall, colored, in the colored settlement near Falls Church, took fire and was entirely destroyed. Two little children, one a babe and the other three years of age, were left in the house by their mother and were asleep while she went over to her mother's, a short distance off. They were burned to death.

FISH.—Since yesterday 10,000 herring and 100 shad have been received at Fishtown. Herring sold at $1.50a2.00 per hundred and shad at $1.00a1.25 per hundred.

A retail dealer in Baltimore was yesterday convicted of selling oleomargarine and was fined $100. It is reported that proceedings will be instituted against a few more keepers here for selling oleomargarine for butter.

DISTRICT LODGE OF GOOD TEMPLARS. District Lodge, No. 13, Good Templars, met this morning in quarterly session at the hall of Golden Light Lodge, on Fairfax street, District Chief Templar Geo. W. Hawxburst presiding and Mrs. L. B. Staats secretary. The following lodges were represented, viz: Pioneer at Falls Church, Providence at Fairfax Court House, Fannie Bowman Memorial at Vienna, Shakespeare at Manassas, Lorton of Springfield, Mizpah of Ballston, St. Julians of Alexandria county, Keystone of Oakton, Rising Star of Merrifield, Arlington Hill of Arlington, and Golden Light and Talisman of this city.

Mr. Edgar Thompson welcomed the visitors on behalf of Golden Light Lodge, and was responded to by Mr. W. H. Hatch for District Lodge.

The District Lodge degree was conferred upon twenty delegates.

The reports of the District Chief Templar, District Secretary and District Treasurer were submitted and approved. These reports show a most gratifying constitution of the order in the district. Nearly every lodge in the district has increased in membership very materially, the most notable being Golden Light of this city, which made a net increase of 57; Pioneer net increase 27, and Shakespeare 24. The total membership in the district is 705, being an increase of 125 over last quarter. The finances are in good condition.

The District Lodge rendered financial assistance in employing counsel to resist licenses and in prosecuting those engaged in selling liquor contrary to law.

The following is the membership of the lodges of the District: Pioneer, 128; Golden Light, 110; Shakespeare, 67; Lorton, 62; Mizpah, 58; Providence, 52; St. Julians, 48; Talisman, 37; Keystone, 36; Rising Star, 24; Fannie Bowman Memorial, 21; Arlington Hill 42; Clifton, 19.

Among those in attendance from out of the city at the session, are Messrs. J. H. Dodge, W. P. Meredith, E. H. Allen, Walter Leeds, Dr. J. B. Gould, W. A. Schlegel, W. H. Hatch, Roscoe Hawxburst, W. C. Parker, W. T. Sprangle, J. H. Garretson, E. A. Kimball, T. W. White, Norman Lee, John McQueen, Chas. Harrison, A. B. Johnson, Karl Garretson, Mrs. L. B. Staats, Mrs. M. E. Powell, Mrs. W. H. Bowman, Miss Maud Powell, Miss Fannie Kenyon, Miss Emeline Klock, Miss Mary J. Sagar, Miss Eva M. Marks, Miss Jennie Lewis, Miss Edith Kerr, Miss Cora Cooke, Miss Sallie Jacobs, Miss Lillie Porter, Miss Margie Jacobs, and Miss Mary H. Thorne. Prominent members of the Grand Lodge of Washington present were Mr. W. S. Rowley, Past Grand Counselor; Mrs. W. S. Rowley, Grand Vice Templar; Mrs. Mary Ketchum and Miss Emma Wood.

At 1 o'clock the District Lodge took a recess until 2 o'clock during which time the members of the District Lodge and visiting Good Templars were entertained at a banquet in the lower hall by Golden Light Lodge. The tables, three in number, were handsomely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, while all that could tempt the inner man was tastefully and abundantly supplied.

We return our thanks for a delightful lunch sent to this office. The District Lodge this evening agreed to meet with Providence Lodge Fairfax Court House, in August. The lodge then adjourned to meet with Golden Light Lodge at 8 o'clock to-night.

The lodge will make an excursion to Mount Vernon at 6:20 over the electric road.

CAPT. MCCARTY'S LECTURE.—The Irish ballads and other music for Capt. McCarty's lecture to-night will be given by a lady vocalist with harp accompaniment, ("The Harp of Tara" and others) and the instrumental music by a full orchestra, so as to make a complete literary and musical entertainment, characteristic of the interesting subject that the author proposes to treat in a more novel manner than it has ever received before. In fact the great masses of the Irish soldiers that served in France under the great Catholic monarch Louis XIV, are generally known only by the historical accounts of the battle of Fontenoy and the battles of Lord Cardigan, the commander of the Irish brigade, while the real fact is that the Irish were in all the great battles from the time of the treaty of Limerick to the fall of the Stuarts 50 years afterwards. In our revolution some of Washington's trusted generals were Irishmen and the Englishman who three years ago wrote about the Irish-Americans declared that at that time more than a third of the people of the colonies were of Irish blood. The subject would be both instructive and popular and it is certain that Mr. McCarty will fill the bill. He will be introduced to the audience by Mr. M. B. Harlow.

FUNERALS.—The funeral of the late Miss Harriet C. Taylor took place to-day from St. Paul's Church and was attended by many of the friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. G. H. Norton and the pallbearers were Messrs. E. L. Daingerfield, Henry Daingerfield, F. L. Smith, J. M. Johnson, G. W. Ramsay and W. W. Herbert. The remains were interred in the family lot in St. Paul's cemetery, the interment being private. Among those present were Attorney General Scott, of Virginia, and Col. Charles Marshall, of Baltimore, nephews of the deceased.

The funeral services of the late Col. Basil Brawner took place this morning from his late home on upper King street and were conducted by Rev. T. E. Carson.

RESIGNATION.—Mr. H. S. Cooper has tendered his resignation as Superintendent of the Electric Railway Company to take effect on the 31st instant, and Dr. Abbot, president of the company, has issued an order stating that till further notice Mr. D. W. Holden will perform the duties of superintendent. It is understood that Mr. Cooper is considering a very flattering offer from another company. He has been a faithful and efficient officer and the many friends he made while in Alexandria will regret his departure from this city.

MISS JOSEPHINE CAMERON.—On to-morrow night Miss Josephine Cameron will present "Camille" at the Opera House. In speaking of Miss Cameron the Brunswick Times says: "Friday night Josephine Cameron and company presented 'Camille' with herself cast in the title role. Miss Cameron is a fine emotional actress, and her acting of the queen of 'Jemi-monde' was faultless. The pathetic scene of the sacrifice and the adieu forever in the third act was very affecting and brought many tears to the eyes of her fair auditors."

THE LIGHT INFANTRY FAIR.—The fair for the benefit of the Alexandria Light Infantry opened at Armory Hall last night under encouraging circumstances. Notwithstanding the weather was rainy, there was a fair attendance, and those who were on hand were well pleased with the entertainment. The prettily dressed booths were very attractive and the lady attendants who presided over the refreshments and the articles exhibited proved themselves adepts. The Corcoran Cadets will visit the fair to-night.

BUILDINGS.—Mr. W. F. Vincent has commenced the construction for Mr. J. S. Blackburn, of two handsome brick residences on Washington street, north of Cameron, and of a frame school house in the rear of Mr. B's present residence on that street. The residences are to be built after the English basement style and the three houses will cost in the neighborhood of $8,000.

JAIL REPORT.—Dr. Purvis and Messrs. C. C. Carlin and C. N. Moore to-day submitted to the Corporation Court their quarterly report of the condition of the city jail. They state that the jail is well kept and is in good sanitary condition. At present there are 15 prisoners—2 white males, 1 white female and 12 colored persons.

FAIRFAX REPUBLICANS.—The following is the ticket which will be supported by the republicans of Mr. Vernon district, Fairfax county: Road Commissioners—Walter Walton, Jas. Roberts, A. W. Harrison and T. Hailip; Magistrates—J. P. H. Mason, Joseph Graham and P. Fulman; Constable—Matthew McCuen.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The public schools of the county will be closed this year on the 9th of June. Sheriff George W. Tansill, of Prince William county, has announced himself a candidate for the Legislature.

The remains of Miss Ann Washington, who died recently in North Carolina, will be brought here to-night for interment to-morrow.

The stockholders of the American Electric and Manufacturing Company, of Washington, met in this city to-day and elected directors.

From the first of July the mail service between Fairfax station and Fairfax Court House will be increased to fourteen times a week.

It was Mr. Edward Mayberry of the University of Virginia, not of the Seminary, who recently conducted the university local examinations in this city.

A balky horse this morning backed a milk wagon against the window of Capt. George Young's cigar store, on King street, but fortunately did but little damage.

Among the attractions at the Alexandria Light Infantry Auditorium this evening will be Mr. Conly, of Washington, in his dialect recitations and songs, and the Mandolin Club.

A called meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company will be held to-night for the transaction of special business. There will also be a called meeting of the Columbia company to-night.

The alarm of fire about seven o'clock yesterday evening was caused by the burning of some bedding in the house occupied by a colored man named Geo. Washington, on Fairfax street, near the W. & O. depot.

At the meeting last night of Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, three candidates were initiated, after which all present partook of a very nice little banquet which had been prepared in the banquet hall.

A special meeting of the City Council was to have been held to-night to consider the engineer's bill, but it is understood that the meeting will not be held, as the members who have the bill in charge will not be able to attend.

The power house being constructed at Rosslyn by the United States Government to force the water up to Fort Myer is nearly completed, and the troops stationed there will be supplied this summer with Potomac water.

The Washington and Arlington Electric Railroad from the Aqueduct bridge to Arlington is now doing a good business, hundreds of people on week days and thousands on Sundays visiting the great national cemetery by way of this route.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Chas. Cole, of Westmoreland county, and Emma Williams; to John Pearson and Alma V. Dore, both of this city, and to Joseph Norman and Sallie Marshall, of Maple Grove.

We again call attention to the novel elocutionary entertainment to be given by Miss Westcott on the evening of the 18th. Miss Westcott recited in Staunton for the benefit of the King's Daughters' Hospital enterprise and charmed every one.

At a meeting last night of the Friendship Fire Company invitations were accepted to take part with Lee Camp in the celebration on the 24th of Confederate Memorial Day and also to attend the Alexandria Light Infantry fair on the night of that day.

The suit of Mrs. Fannie Ragland against Woodward & Lothrop, of Washington, for $20,000, for having her scarred in their establishment, where she was arrested by a private detective on the charge of stealing a diamond ring, which was not found on her, was begun in this city yesterday.

Mr. R. L. Harden (whose stand is on St. Asaph street, between Prince and King) who has more of them, sent a nice mess of soft crabs, alive and kicking, the first of the season from Blackstone's Island, to this office to-day.

FOUND.—On Saturday, the 13th instant, at the local depot, a small SUM OF MONEY, which the owner can have by proving property and paying for this notice. Call at 1216 King street. my16 3*

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The members of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, will meet at their rooms on THURSDAY EVENING, May 18th, at 7:30 o'clock, for business, and to attend the fair of the Alexandria Light Infantry in uniform. By order of the Commander. EDGAR WARFIELD, Adjutant. my16 3t

A SPECIAL called meeting of the RELIEF HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY will be held TO-NIGHT, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements for participating in the Memorial Day parade, and also for transacting deferred business. By order of the President. C. H. PICKIN, Secretary. 1t

COLUMBIA ENGINE COMPANY.—A called meeting of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company will be held at the engine house THIS EVENING at 8 o'clock, for important business. F. L. ENTWISLE, Secretary. 1t

SARATOGA CHIPS AND FRENCH MUSHROOMS for sale by H. C. WALLACE. 1t

AUCTION SALES.

FOR SALE.—The stock and fixtures of the DRUG STORE (No. 404 King street) of the late James Entwistle, jr., is offered at private sale until MAY 16th, 1893. If not sold by that time it will be offered at public auction on WEDNESDAY, May 17th, at 10 a. m. E. M. ENTWISLE, Administrator.

By O'Neal & Lunt, Auctioneers. TRUSTEES' SALE OF "OPOSSUM NOSE," ON THE POTOMAC RIVER.

By virtue of a certain deed of trust executed to the undersigned, trustees of the Potomac Mining and Reduction Company, dated the 27th day of May, 1890, and recorded in liber 39, page 454, of the record books of Prince William county, Va., at the request of the parties secured thereby, default having been made in the payment of the debt there-in described, the undersigned on the 31st day of May, 1893, at eleven o'clock a. m., in front of the Market House, in the city of Alexandria, Va., will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, that TRACT OF LAND once owned by the late Philip Oterlock, called "Opossum Nose," containing 1,034 acres, more or less, located in Prince William county, fronting on the Potomac river about 1 1/2 miles and on Quantico creek about 1 mile, and improved by a good dwelling house and outbuildings and otherwise. The soil is excellent; upwards of 400 acres of the tract are cleared and the residue is well timbered in pine and hard wood.

Terms of Sale: One-fourth of the purchase money cash and the balance in three equal installments, payable at six, twelve and eighteen months from day of sale, to be secured by interest-bearing notes and deed of trust on the land, with such provisions as to insurance of buildings and protection of timber while purchase money is unpaid as may seem proper to the undersigned.

For further information application can be made to the undersigned or to O. E. Hine, Vienna, Fairfax county, Va. JAS. S. EDWARDS, 500 5th st. n. w., Washington, D. C. CHAS. P. JANNEY, Leesburg, Va. my6 eots

By R. F. Knox, Auctioneer. TRUSTEE'S SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of a deed of trust from London Jackson and wife to the undersigned, dated October 18th, 1890, and recorded in liber J. No. 5, p. 425, of the land records of Fairfax county, Va., and at the request of the party secured thereby, I will sell at public auction, in front of the premises at 12 o'clock m., on WEDNESDAY, May 21, 1893, the following property, to wit:

First, ALL THAT LOT OF GROUND in the county of Fairfax, Va., bounded on the south by Church street, extended from the city of Alexandria, Va., on the east by Patrick street, extended, and on the west by Hunting creek road.

Second, ALL THAT LOT OF GROUND in said county of Fairfax near the eastern extremity of Hunting creek bridge, containing sixteen poles, more or less, bounded on the north by Church street, extended, on the east by the land formerly owned by Lucien Peyton, on the south by the said Hunting creek, and on the west by the road leading from Hunting creek bridge to the city of Alexandria; also all the right, title and interest of the said London Jackson and wife in and to a certain lease executed by Oliver Pulman to the Hazard Powder Company, and the property will be sold subject to said lease.

Terms of sale: Three hundred and seventy-five dollars in cash, and the residue in two equal payments at one and two years after date, the purchaser to give his notes for the deferred payments which are to bear interest from day of sale, the title to be retained until the whole of the purchase money is paid, and all conveyancing at the cost of the purchaser.
